4 EXPLANATION

5 The inclusion of this explanation does not constitute agreement with 6 the explanation's substance by the members of the general assembly.

7 This bill relates to court appointed special advocates and 8 the confidentiality of information regarding a child receiving 9 foster care.

10 The bill allows a court appointed special advocate to attend
11 family team decision-making meetings and youth transition
12 decision-making meetings.

13 The bill amends confidentiality provisions concerning
14 information and records relating to a child receiving foster
15 care and foster care placement. Under current law, the 16 information and records of or provided to a local citizen
17 foster care review board, the child advocacy board, or court
18 appointed special advocate regarding a child receiving foster
19 care and the child's family when relating to the foster care
20 placement are not public records. The bill specifies that 21 such confidential information and records include records of 22 other services provided to a child who is under the court's 23 jurisdiction.

24 The bill allows a court appointed special advocate to attend
25 family team decision-making meetings or youth transition
26 decision-making meetings upon request by the family or child
27 and disclose case-related observations and recommendations
28 relating to a child or a child's family while attending the 29 meetings.

30 The bill also allows a court appointed special advocate 31 to disclose case-related observations and recommendations to 32 the agency assigned by the court to supervise the case, to the 33 county attorney, or to the child's legal representative or 34 guardian ad litem.

35 The bill exempts members of the state child advocacy

1 board and local citizen foster care review boards, court
2 appointed special advocates, and employees of the departments
3 of human services and inspections and appeals from certain 4 confidentiality provisions if the disclosure of information
5 or records of the board or department are as provided under 6 the provisions of the bill, Code section 232.89 or 232.126
7 (appointments of counsel under juvenile justice Code), or 8 section 237.20, subsection 2 (court reports).
